

Archives & Archaeology Privacy Notice

Legal obligation when we process personal information in relation to the Historic Environment Record or the storage and preservation of archives

Who we may share your information with

We may need to share the personal information you have given to us or we have collected about you with partner organisations where relevant to the individual and/or their use of the service provision. These include but are not limited to:

- Other Worcestershire County Council services as appropriate including Legal Services
- Archive Partners
- Voluntary Agency Partners
- Third Party Contractors
- Elected Members and MPs (as your representative)
- Funding Bodies
- Worcestershire District and City Councils

Information will only ever be shared when it is strictly necessary to help us provide effective services and you may have the right to refuse. We will not pass it onto any other parties unless required to do so by law or in all reasonable circumstances the disclosure is fair and warranted for the purposes of processing or subject to a data protection exemption.

We have specific data sharing agreements in place with local agencies and sometimes the law requires that we may have to pass your details on to a third party, for example, to prevent crime.

How long we will hold your information

The standard record retention for records relating to Archives & Archaeology records is 6 years. However there are also a range of other retention periods affecting different types of information and service needs and these range from 10 years to permanently depending on the type of information and service. More information about our retention periods can be found in our summary Disposal Schedule.

Please note stated retention periods may be subject to any legal holds imposed under the Inquiries Act 2005 that may concern the information and override standard retention periods.

Your information rights

You are entitled to a copy, or a description, of the personal data we hold that relates to you, subject to lawful restrictions. Please go to our Make a Data Protection Request webpage to find out how to make a request.

You may be entitled to rectification, restriction, objection, and erasure of your personal information depending on the service and legal basis. Please in the first instance contact Victoria Bryant, Worcestershire Archive and Archaeology Service Manager, at VBryant@Worcestershire.gov.uk or on 01905 845506 to exercise these Information Rights or call the main Worcestershire County Council contact telephone number of 01905 765765.

Archives & Archaeology Privacy Notice

Please see our overarching Privacy Notice (<http://www.worcestershire.gov.uk/privacy>) for further contact details and if you have a complaint about your information rights.

Changes to this notice

We keep this Privacy Notice under regular review and we will place any updates on this web page. This Notice was last updated on 12 November 2018.
